Conference info: Fall 2023 meeting of the Eastern Great Lakes Section of the American Physical Society

Conference dates: October, 20th and 21st, 2023

Conference location: Cleveland State University, Cleveland, Ohio

A limited number of student travel scholarships are available this year. Travel scholarships will be given to eligible undergraduate students travelling from outside of the Cleveland area to Cleveland State University to attend the Fall 2023 meeting of the Eastern Great Lakes Section of the American Physical Society. Scholarship applications will be considered by the section's Executive Committee on a case-by-case basis based on needs. Whenever possible applicants are encouraged to team up with other meeting attendees for travel and lodging purposes. Travel Scholarships are limited to one per institution and cover up to a maximum of $100 of travel costs. Please make sure to register for the meeting. The awards will be given in person at the meeting.
