

The American Dance Festival (ADF) in Cleveland Workshop Presented By DANCECleveland in Collaboration with Cleveland State University's Department of Theatre and Dance is a four day workshop comprised of modern, contemporary, hip hop, creative process and repertory classes for professional and intermediate to advanced level dancers ages 16 and up. The workshop provides time and space for dancers to immerse themselves in their training while enjoying the festival activities and live dance performances that ADF & DANCECleveland will be offering during the week-long festival, which takes place July 29th– August 5th in the CLE. theatre district.

Workshop Series Dates: Wed. Aug. 2nd – Sat. Aug. 5th.

Time: Classes will run daily from 9:30 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.

Where: Cleveland State University Arts Campus, Middough Building; 1901 East 13th St. Cleveland, OH 44114

Registration Fee: $320 (Includes all classes, performance tickets, t-shirt and more!)

Housing and food are not included. Dancers over 18 can contact DANCECleveland for housing options at CSU.
