2024 ECLIPSE SEMINAR SERIES

THE ECLIPSE AND FILM

YGAL KAUFMAN

Multimedia Journalist
Ideastream Public Radio

As we approach a total eclipse of the Sun in April, in which Cleveland will be in the path of totality, take an opportunity to think about the eclipse as captured and depicted on film and in movies. Ygal Kaufman, journalist, filmmaker and exhibitor, will talk about and show some examples from modern and historical film that deal with the eclipse, as well as delving into the science of the eclipse on celluloid film and modern digital technologies, and the philosophical connections between the eclipse and moving images.
